

Parent survey analysis November 2023

81 respondents

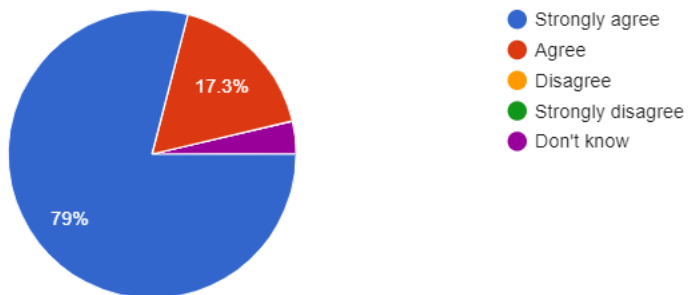

1. My child is happy at Woodlands

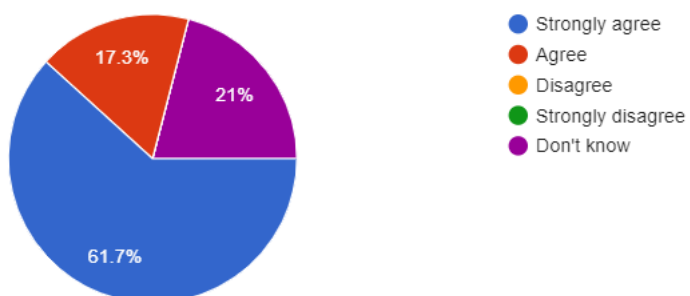

2. My child feels safe at Woodlands

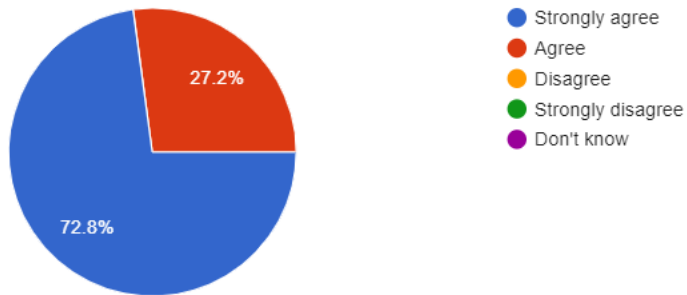

3. The school encourages the students to be well behaved.

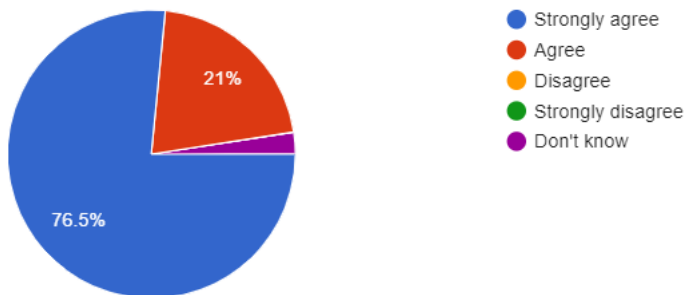

4. The school deals effectively with bullying

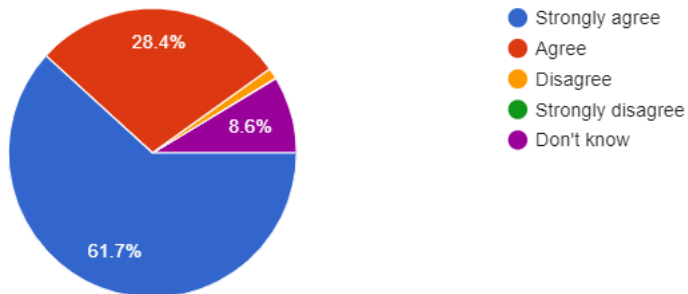

5. The school informs me about what my child will be learning

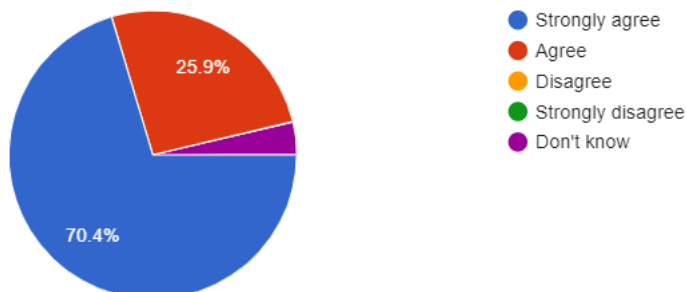

6. When I have raised concerns they have been dealt with properly

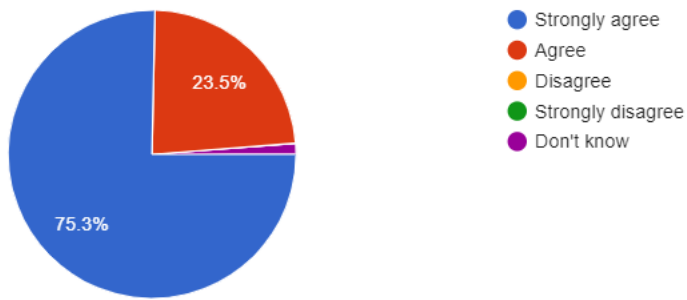

7. Woodlands has high expectations of my child

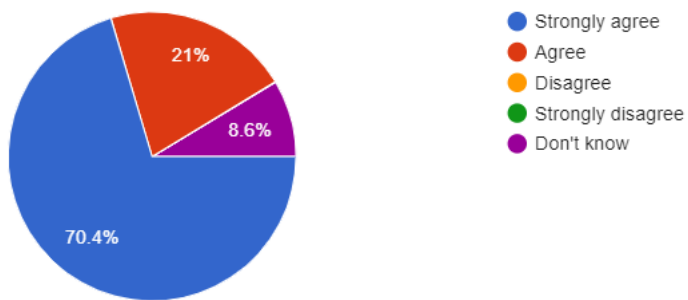

8. My child is doing well at school

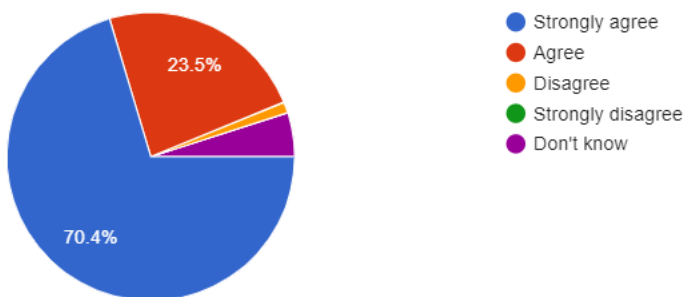

9. The school lets me know how my child is doing

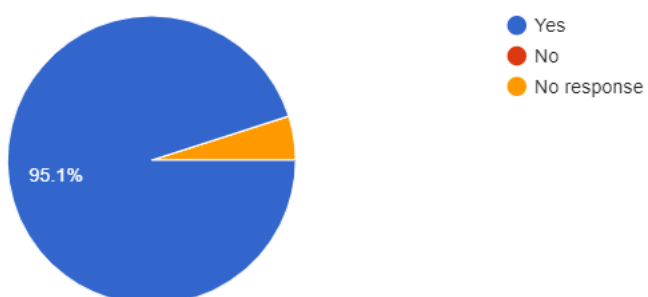

10. My child accesses appropriate learning opportunities at school

11. Woodlands school supports my child's wider personal development

12. Would you recommend this school to other parents?

What do we do well?

Everything

Good communication

Communicating with parents.

Communicating with Parents.

Communication, dealing with any concerns, and encouraging children to learn.

Meet the needs of the child, listen to parent's concerns, and work with parents to achieve the best outcome.

Excellent support and help, very understanding

Helping with emotional regulation, life skills

Y's behaviour, communication personality, and education improved a lot.

Very good approach to children and their needs, great patience and understanding for children.

Giving children a chance to learn something new every day.

Encourage the children to be themselves. Be confident, behaved, and out spoken.

Effective communication, and community opportunities.

Nice

Friendly staff

Education

Treat L as an individual

Keep parents informed and up to date with all of our children's work and emotions. Also, listen to the child and parents.

All staff put the safety of all pupils first and are very helpful.

Help the children learn

Give confidence to the children encouragement, and make them feel good about themselves!

It does well in every aspect

Make my child happy

Look after needs of child

Communication, understanding our children

Encourage and support individual.

Helping our child transitioning the outside world

Care for children well, very supportive

Very nice pleasant environment

Tailoring specifically to children's individual needs.

Encourages children to do everything by staff.

Well cared and well learned with professional approach

Keeping contact with parents. Always friendly staff.

Good environment, skilled staff

T is doing really good in Woodlands.

Communicate well with parents.

You guys are already very well doing.

Communication

K has thrived since attending Woodlands. Massive confidence boost.

Everything is good.

Encourages students to do their best.

My child mostly want to come to school

Working to each child's individual needs

Getting day-to-day information by email on how the student is doing at school.
Any concerns raised have been dealt with quickly
Friendly staff. We feel happy knowing A is happy and safe at school
Targeting working skills to each child
Reporting daily about our son.
Engage well
Understand people's needs and always willing to make adjustments accordingly.
Support children to grow and learn to be independent
Engaging my child
Great communication every day, we know what D has done and will be doing at school.

Any other comments

No
Me and my son very happy in this school
Extremely happy with how my child has improved.
Happy with the school
We appreciate the hard work all teachers do for the students. Keep up the good work.
No, thank you
It's a wonderful place for children to learn, grow, and feel a part of somewhere
I am happy about school who they doing everything for my child
Woodlands is a very good school, especially for special children.
Both my boys attend Woodlands and both love it very much.
Keep it up, hats off to all of you management. Bless you all.
Our child is happy and doing very well.
T is very happy to attend school, which is the best thing.
So happy with how Archie is progressing in school.
My child loves school and can't imagine a day off, it goes to show how the school is doing well.
Don't change.
Excellent school
My child has settled really well into Woodlands, he enjoys coming to school. We have no concerns.