What does the school do well?

- They do everything well! I am often speechless because I cannot fault them. They really care.
- Everything's good for my child
- The timetable varies each day and appears to be more interactive. Organise well during school drop off & pick up
- Communicate brilliantly, Emailing how the day has gone. Always friendly and happy to chat
- School is doing everything. My son is very happy here and is making progress
- Friendly staff welcoming parents
- Woodlands school gives opportunity to every child to develop their skills as per their potential
- Keeping everybody safe and meeting individual pupil's needs
- Everything
- Communication
- My child just started this year, so far very good school
- Keep parents informed and up to date
- Involve parents with child's curriculum, constant communication and daily class feedback.
- Improve my son's learning progress

- Teachers attend to the student just like they would to their own children.
- Good communication & supportive staff
- Everything
- Helps his development
- Everything is great. Very happy with the School.

What could the school improve?

- Nothing
- Nothing - communication is fantastic
- More easier access to the school e.g. zebra crossing for parents who walk to school with their child.
- More swimming would be great. However, I understand funding and staffing resources
- Provide the homework for child to improve their knowledge
- Nothing, It's an amazing school
- Speech therapy
- More outdoor trips
